24. In any or all of these men are acceptable we will endeavor to give them the best of our own and deliver them to Jewish and a conducting witness.

As to the position of the policy regarding the right of entry of foreigners in our country in the future, I have to say that we have no intention of changing this policy in any way. We would merely like to discuss it in the future if the number of the entry can be very limited in order to maintain the balance.

As they continued on in searching of the Army on this matter until they were disappointed.
